

LOOM

LOOM

We are thrilled to introduce Loom - our new line of interchangeable melamine cake stands that are sure to elevate your dessert presentation game.

The new cake stands come in two heights and two bases, giving you complete control and flexibility over your presentation without worrying about the hassle of switching between bulky stands

Loom pedestals are both functional and aesthetically pleasing. Loom cake pedestals also feature a modular pedestal and interlocking system that makes it incredibly easy to change the height of the display.

BARK

Our new round wood bark platters are the perfect addition to any rustic display, and their realistic texture will provide a unique experience for your customers.

Plus, made in melamine, their durability and resistance to chips and scratches make them a practical choice for busy establishments.

Whether you're displaying cheese or small desserts, the stone pedestal base's modular design allows you to create the perfect display for your needs by playing with heights.
